Re: Krishanthi, et al. v. Rajaratnam, et al. No. 2:09-cv-05395-BRM-JSA
Withdrawal of Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel as to Third Party Deutsche Bank AG,
New York Branch

Dear Judge Dickson:

On July 8, 2022, Plaintiffs filed a Motion to Compel Third Party Deutsche Bank AG to Produce Documents Responsive to Plaintiffs' February 4, 2019 Subpoena Issued Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 45. See ECF No. 508. Plaintiffs subsequently served the motion on Deutsche Bank AG's New York Branch and sent the motion by e-mail to the individual within Deutsche Bank AG with whom Plaintiffs' counsel had been conferring. On July 15, 2022, Plaintiffs received a production of materials from Deutsche Bank AG, New York Branch that were, at least in part, responsive to Plaintiffs' subpoena. Plaintiffs have subsequently engaged in a dialogue seeking responses to follow-up questions related to the production in addition to materials that were conspicuously missing from the production. Nevertheless, at the present time, Plaintiffs seek to withdraw their motion to compel without prejudice to refiling should the discussions with Deutsche Bank AG, New York Branch fail to result in additional production responsive to Plaintiffs' February 4, 2019 subpoena.

Respectfully submitted,

SO ORDERED.
